Worship September 19, 2021

Welcome & Announcements

Prelude "An die Musik" F. Schubert
Jennifer Garrison Brown, flute
*Beloved art, in how many a bleak hour, when I am enmeshed in life's tumultuous round,
have you kindled my heart to the warmth of love,
and borne me away to a better world!*

*Call to Worship

Leader: Welcome to our community of faith.

People: With the help of the Creator
we strive to be a people of inclusion.

Leader: We come to share open hearts, open doors, and open minds.

People: Experience spiritual living built on belonging, believing, and blessing others.

Leader: We are free to be ourselves, included, accepted, and welcomed, and people who care for all of God's creations.

People: We want to create welcome for all in this place,
in our homes and communities,
and throughout the world.

Let us worship together as a community of faith.

Stewardship Testimony

Opening Hymn "Community of Christ" #314 Stz 1, 2, 4

Community of Christ, who make the Cross your own, live out your creed and risk your life for God alone:
The God who wears your face, to whom all worlds belong,
whose children are of every race and every song.

Community of Christ, look past the church's door and see the refugee, the hungry, and the poor.
Take hands with the oppressed, the jobless in your street,
take towel and water, that you wash your neighbor's feet.

When menace melts away, so shall God's will be done,
the climate of the world be peace and Christ its Sun;
Our currency be love and kindness our law,
our food and faith be shared as one for evermore.

Prayers of the People

The Prayer of our Savior

Our Mother, Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread;
and forgive us our sins, as we forgive those who sin against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power,
and the glory forever. Amen.

*Passing of the Peace

Congregational Song "God of Many Faces"

Amy Cerniglia

Irish Melody, harm. Jack Schrader

God of many faces, we offer our praise, singing your glory through all of our days.
Hear ever growing voices, once fragile, now strong,
carrying melodies in expansive new songs.

God of many genders, our world reflects you,
sunrise and sunset uniting our hues,
woven into a city with jewels of all shades,
houses of ruby and walls rowed with jade.

God of many names, we invite you to show us the new names that reflect our true souls.
Breathe with your holy spirit to give us the Word that will indwell dry bones, granting new life once heard.

God of many bodies, abide within ours,
shifting more each day through time and through scars.
Come sanctify our bodies, all fashioned by you,
holier everyday, still becoming more true.

Scripture Mark 7:24-30 (NRSV)

From there he set out and went away to the region of Tyre.
He entered a house and did not want anyone to know he was there.
Yet he could not escape notice, but a woman whose little daughter had an unclean spirit immediately heard about him, and she came and bowed down at his feet. Now the woman was a Gentile, of Syrophoenician origin. She begged him to cast the demon out of her daughter. He said to her, "Let the children be fed first, for it is not fair to take the children's food and throw it to the dogs."
But she answered him, "Sir, even the dogs under the table eat the children's crumbs." Then he said to her,
"For saying that, you may go—the demon has left your daughter."
So she went home, found the child lying on the bed,
and the demon gone.

Anthem

"You Say" Lauren Daigle, Jason Ingram,
Paul Mabury, arr. Heather Sorenson

*I keep fighting voices in my mind that say I'm not enough.
Every single lie that tells me I will never measure up.
Am I more than just the sum of every high and every low?
Remind me once again just who I am, because I need to know.*

*Refrain: You say I am loved when I can't feel a thing,
You say I am strong when I think I am weak,
You say I am held when I am falling short.
When I don't belong, you say I am yours.
And I believe what you say of me.*

*The only thing that matters now is everything you think of me.
In you I find my worth, in you I find my identity. Refrain*

*Taking all I have, and now I'm laying it at your feet.
You have every failure, God, you have every victory. Refrain*
