First Sunday of Advent

First Congregational Church of St. Louis
United Church of Christ
An Open & Affirming Congregation

Welcome!

Whoever you are, and wherever you are on life's journey, you are welcome here.

Restrooms are located down the hall on the main floor.

All Gender Restrooms are located at the back of the sanctuary and downstairs in the Fellowship Hall (which is accessible).

Changing tables are located in the Nursery on the main floor and at the back of the sanctuary.

Childcare for infants-preschoolers is located in the nursery on the main floor.

An asterisk is an invitation to rise, in body or spirit.
Bolded text is an invitation for the congregation to read or sing in unison.

For everyone's health and safety:

- Masks are required for everyone ages 5 and over while indoors.
- Ushers will not collect offerings. Instead, you may place your offerings in the baskets located in the Tower Room and Narthex.
- Children remaining in worship should sit with their parents in the pews. Children may get activities from the Prayground and then return to the pews.
- At the conclusion of worship, attendees should exit the sanctuary promptly to avoid prolonged, close contact.

Welcome & Announcements

Bert Merrell, S&A

Prelude

"Come, Savior of the Nations"

J.S. Bach
(1685-1750)

Call to Worship

Leader: Fathering time, Mothering creation,

People: Parenting all people ... God!

Leader: Waiting for the right moment,

People: Preparing the right way,

Leader: Intending the right woman ... God!

People: We believe in one God.

Leader: We come to worship our God.

People: Maker and mover of heaven and earth!

Opening Hymn "O Come, O Come, Emmanuel"

#116 vv. 1 & 2

O come, O come, Emmanuel, and ransom captive Israel that mourns in lonely exile here, until the Child of God appear.

Rejoice! Rejoice!
Emmanuel shall come to you, O Israel!

O come, O Wisdom from on high,
and order all things far and nigh;
To us the path of knowledge show,
and help us in that way to go.

Rejoice! Rejoice!
Emmanuel shall come to you, O Israel!

Prayers of the People

The Prayer of Our Savior

Our Mother, Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Scripture

Isaiah 9:2, 6

Rev. Mia White

The people walking in darkness have seen a great light;
on those living in the land of deep darkness
a light has dawned.

For to us a child is born,
to us a son is given,
and the government will be on his shoulders.
And he will be called Wonderful Counselor, Mighty God,
Everlasting Father, Prince of Peace.

Hanging of the Wreaths and Greens

Rev. Mia White

Reader: Evergreens are a symbol of things that last.
Isaiah wrote that there would be no end to the Messiah's reign.

Scripture

Revelation 22:12-13, 16

Suzy Besnia

“Look, I am coming soon!

My reward is with me, and I will give to each person according to what they have done.

I am the Alpha and the Omega,
the First and the Last,
the Beginning and the End.

I, Jesus, have sent my angel to give you this testimony for the churches.
I am the Root and the Offspring of David, and the bright Morning Star.”

Changing of the Paraments

Suzy Besnia

Reader: Today marks the beginning of a new church year.
Purple, the color for penitence and royalty, is used to mark the seasons of Advent and Lent,
the times of preparation before Christmas and Easter.
Like the cycles of the church year,
we are reminded that God is the first and last,
the Alpha and the Omega,
the beginning and the end.
God is our bright Morning Star.
We remember this with the star that led the magi to the baby in the manger.
May we prepare our hearts and minds for the coming of a Savior into our world today.

Anthem

"E'en So Lord Jesus, Quickly Come" Music by Paul Manz
Text by Ruth Manz

*Peace be to you and grace from him
Who freed us from our sins,
Who loved us all and shed his blood
That we might saved be.
Sing holy, holy to our Lord,
The Lord, Almighty God,
Who was and is and is to come;
Sing holy, holy, Lord!
Rejoice in heaven, all ye that dwell therein,
Rejoice on earth, ye saints below,
For Christ is coming soon!
E'en so, Lord Jesus, quickly come,
And night shall be no more;
They need no light nor lamp nor sun,
For Christ will be their All!*

Reader: In the midst of conflict and unrest,
we are called to be messengers of peace.
In a dark world, we are called to be carriers of God's light.
We light this candle as a symbol of Peace.
Make us ready, O God, for the coming of Jesus,
our light and our peace.

*Hymn

"Keep Awake, Be Always Ready"

#112

Keep awake, be always ready,
God's time approaches sure and steady,
God's strength will keep your heart from blame.
Clouds, the Spirit's light concealing, disperse, God's purest light revealing;
creation will its Sovereign name.
Dry branches burst forth green,
God's advent signs are seen: Hallelujah!
Christ's judgment won, God's will be done;
God's new dominion thus begun.

Rise and shine for One is coming whose love will quench all nature's thirsting to be made whole forever more.
On that day to end all weeping, death's swords transformed to tools of reaping,
the God of might will mercy pour.
Incarnate, God appears embracing all our tears: Hallelujah!
God's majesty eternally revealed to set the cosmos free.

The poor and needy search for water,
but there is none;
their tongues are parched with thirst.
But I the Lord will answer them;
I, the God of Israel, will not forsake them.
I will make rivers flow on barren heights, and springs within the valleys.
I will turn the desert into pools of water, and the parched ground into springs.
I will put in the desert
the cedar and the acacia, the myrtle and the olive.
I will set junipers in the wasteland,
the fir and the cypress together,
so that people may see and know,
may consider and understand, that the hand of the Lord has done this,
that the Holy One of Israel has created it.

Hanging of the Chrismons

Robyn Wiens

Reader: With the Christmas tree, we remember God's everlasting promises to the poor and needy.
Today, we decorate this pine tree with symbols and signs of Christ to remind us of Christ's identity, God's story, and the Holy Trinity.

O come, O Key of David, come,
and open wide your heavenly home;
Make safe the path to endless day,
to hell's destruction close the way.

Rejoice! Rejoice!
Emmanuel shall come to you, O Israel!

O come, O Dayspring, come and cheer our spirits by your advent here;
Love stir within the womb of night,
and death's own shadows put to flight.

Rejoice! Rejoice!
Emmanuel shall come to you, O Israel!

Blessing

Leader: In this Advent of expectation draw us together in unity, People: that our praise and worship might echo in these walls and also through our lives.

Leader: In this Advent of expectation draw us together in mission,
People: that the hope within might be the song we sing,
and the melody of our lives.

Leader: In this Advent of expectation draw us together in service, that the path we follow

People: might lead us from a stable to a glimpse of eternity. Amen

Postlude

"Sleepers Wake, A Voice Is Calling"

J.S. Bach

Thank you to those serving today.

We are grateful for our guest organist, Bill Aitken.
