Second Sunday of Advent

First Congregational Church of St. Louis
United Church of Christ
An Open & Affirming Congregation

Welcome!

Whoever you are, and wherever you are on life's journey, you are welcome here.

Restrooms are located down the hall on the main floor.

All Gender Restrooms are located at the back of the sanctuary and downstairs in the Fellowship Hall (which is accessible).

Changing tables are located in the Nursery on the main floor and at the back of the sanctuary.

Childcare for infants-preschoolers is located in the nursery on the main floor.

An asterisk is an invitation to rise, in body or spirit.
Bolded text is an invitation for the congregation to read or sing in unison.

For everyone's health and safety:

- Masks are required for everyone ages 5 and over while indoors.
- Ushers will not collect offerings. Instead, you may place your offerings in the baskets located in the Tower Room and Narthex.
- Children remaining in worship should sit with their parents in the pews. Children may get activities from the Prayground and then return to the pews.
- At the conclusion of worship, attendees should exit the sanctuary promptly to avoid prolonged, close contact.

Prelude

"Keep Your Lamps"

André Thomas

Keep your lamps trimmed and burning, the time is drawing nigh.

Children, don't get weary 'til your work is done.

Christian journey soon be over, the time is drawing nigh.

Stewardship Moment

Call to Worship

Leader: The day foretold is coming,

People: When our deafened ears will hear a choir,
a heavenly host proclaiming peace!

Leader: The one foretold is coming -

People: Whose cry will pierce the deepest gloom:
a newborn's wail in the silent night!

Leader: The day is at hand!

People: World, listen!

Leader: The savior draws near!

People: Praise the Lord!

Opening Hymn "Come, O Long-Expected Jesus"

Come, O Long-expected Jesus, born to set all people free;
From our fears and sins release us; grant us your true liberty.
Israel's strength and consolation, hope of all the earth impart;
Dear desire of every nation, enter every longing heart.

Born all people to deliver, born a child, you came to reign!
Born to rule on earth forever, come, be known to us again.
By your own eternal Spirit, come to claim us as your own;
By your all-sufficient merit, let us share your cross and crown.

*Passing of the Peace

*Sung Response

"His Kingdom Now Is Come"

The musical score is written for a single voice part in treble clef, key of D major (two sharps), and 4/4 time. It consists of five staves of music. The lyrics are written below the notes, with some words hyphenated across lines. The melody is simple and hymn-like, with a mix of quarter, eighth, and half notes, and rests. The final staff ends with a double bar line.

*Advent Candle Litany

Leader: The season of Advent continues. We light these candles as symbols of our faith and signs of God's love.

People: The first candle of peace, with its gentle and persistent fire, calls out the violent forces and lets in God's deep and tranquil Spirit.

Leader: As we light the second Advent candle, let it stand for hope based not on wishful thinking, but on deep conviction. In the midst of darkness and imperfection, we hope.

People: Hope lives in us and will abide with us.

Leader: In following Christ's teachings, we nurture our hope for peace even today.

People: Today we light the candle of hope.

Lighting of the Advent Wreath

Scripture - Luke 3:1-6

In the fifteenth year of the reign of Emperor Tiberius, when Pontius Pilate was governor of Judea, and Herod was ruler of Galilee, and his brother Philip ruler of the region of Ituraea and Trachonitis, and Lysanias ruler of Abilene, during the high priesthood of Annas and Caiaphas, the word of God came to John son of Zechariah in the wilderness. He went into all the region around the Jordan, proclaiming a baptism of repentance for the forgiveness of sins, as it is written in the book of the words of the prophet Isaiah,

“The voice of one crying out in the wilderness:

‘Prepare the way of the Lord, make his paths straight.

Every valley shall be filled,

and every mountain and hill shall be made low,
and the crooked shall be made straight,
and the rough ways made smooth;

and all flesh shall see the salvation of God.’”

"Comfort, comfort O my people, tell of peace," thus says our God;
Comfort those whose hearts are shrouded, mourning under sorrow's load.
Speak unto Jerusalem of the peace that waits for them;
Tell them that their sins I cover, and their warfare now is over.

For the herald's voice is calling in the desert far and near,
Bidding us to make repentance since the realm of God is here.
Oh, that warning cry obey! Now prepare for God a way;
Let the valleys rise in meeting and the hills bow down in greeting.

Straight shall be what long was crooked, and the rougher places plain!
Let your hearts be true and humble, for Messiah's holy reign.
For God's glory evermore shall be known o'er all the world;
And all flesh shall see the token that God's word is never broken.

Communion

The congregation will be invited forward to partake in communion.
Come by the center aisle and return by the side aisles.
The ushers will place a piece of bread in your hand and you may pick up a cup of juice from the table. There are also individually packaged gluten free wafers on the table.

Invitation to the Table

Leader: God's banquet is coming.

The time we await when all will gather from North, East, West and South.

People: A banquet where the rich and powerful will sit with the least and the last and the lost.

Leader: A table where young and old will learn from each other.
A time when all will sit together in peace,
“and the wolf will lie down with the lamb”.
Here at this table we get a foretaste of God’s banquet.
This is indeed your table, O God. It does not belong to this congregation. So all who come in humble faith are welcome to eat and drink here.

People: Come and taste the grace eternal.
Come and see that God is good!

The Great Thanksgiving

Leader: God is with us.

People: We are not alone.

Leader: Christ is present here.

People: The Spirit moves within us.

Leader: Let us give thanks to God.

People: It is right to give God thanks and praise!

Leader: Blessings be to you, Creator God, who in the beginning brought light and life to the world, and who continues to bring it love and light everlasting.

People: Your song of wisdom echoes through the ages, your ancient promise still brings us hope.

Leader: Over the ages you have called people to embrace your hope and share your love. But even when they have closed their ears to the song, you did not stop singing. You sent prophets and messengers to your people, reminding them of the promised time of peace and justice that would surround the world.
They came in the midst of our despair, and filled us with hope.
And then you came to a young woman named Mary,
and offered the promise in a new way.

People: Promising her a son, who would be called Jesus.
Promising her that in her son, the world would be changed.

(a time of silent prayer, then the pastor will continue with the Prayers of the People)

The Prayer of Our Savior

Our Mother, Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be thy name.
Thy kingdom come, thy will be done on earth as it is in heaven.
Give us this day our daily bread; and forgive us our sins,
as we forgive those who sin against us.
And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil.
For thine is the kingdom, and the power, and the glory forever. Amen.

Words of Institution

(The ushers will come forward.)

Sharing the Bread and Cup

Prayer of Commitment (Unison)

What a risk there was in your becoming flesh!
What a depth of self-giving love for your world!
We stand amazed, at such power bent by such love,
to accept such humiliation for us.
We stand amazed, that suffering love should be the power above all power; the power which transforms the universe, and wins its freedom.
As we depart your table and return to Advent waiting,
we commit our lives and our church to imitate your love. Amen.

Anthem

"Gabriel's Message"

Basque Carol
arr. David Willcocks

*The angel Gabriel from heaven came, his wings as drifted snow, his eyes as flame;
"All hail," said he, "Thou lowly maiden Mary. Most highly favored lady, Gloria!"
"For known a blessed Mother thou shalt be, all generations laud and honor thee, Thy Son shall be Emmanuel, by seers foretold, most highly favored lady, Gloria!"
Then gentle Mary meekly bowed her head; "To me be as it pleases God," she said.
"My soul shall laud and magnify his holy name." "Most highly favored lady, Gloria!"
Of her, Emmanuel, the Christ, was born in Bethlehem, all on a Christmas morn, and Christian folk throughout the world will ever say, "Most highly favored lady, Gloria!"*

Closing Hymn

"Watcher, Tell Us of the Night"

#103 vv. 1 & 3

Watcher, tell us of the night,
what its signs of promise are.
Traveler, O a wondrous sight!
See that glory-beaming star!
Watcher, does its beauteous ray news of joy or hope foretell?
Traveler, yes; it brings the day,
promised day of Israel!

Watcher, tell us of the night,
for the morning seems to dawn.
Traveler, shadows take their flight,
doubt and terror are withdrawn.
Watcher, you may go your way;
hasten to your quiet home.
Traveler, I rejoice today,
for Emmanuel has come!

Postlude
